BOGUS BASIN TO OPEN FOR SEVEN-DAY-A-WEEK OPERATIONS

The non-profit recreation area is ready for its 79th winter season in operation

BOISE, Idaho (December 9, 2021) -- Bogus Basin announced today that daily operations at the non-profit recreation area will begin Friday, December 10th. Although the open ski terrain is currently limited to snowmaking served runs off the Deer Point Express and Coach Chairlifts, snow and favorable snowmaking temperatures are in the forecast, and the area will open additional terrain as conditions allow.

“We are pleased to announce the start of daily operations at Bogus Basin on snowmaking served runs.” said Director of Mountain Operations Nate Shake. “With a considerable amount of snow in the forecast, we are ready to open additional terrain as soon as conditions allow.” A strong storm system is expected to hit Bogus Basin over the weekend, delivering up to seventeen inches of snow.
